Lecturer Will Speak At Baptist Church
George Dewey Blomgren, world traveler and lecturer on world conditions in the light of Biblical prophecy, will speak at the First Baptist Church of Albany, for one night only, on Tuesday evening, July 20 at 7:30 p. m. At this time he will bring his message, "I Saw Hell Loose on the Border" and show a sound motion picture on "Now the Peace."

Mr. Blomgren was born to see what lies ahead and was educated to tell it. His historical sense has given him an insight into the future and an understanding of the past. His contacts with leaders, dictators, premiers and presidents of four continents place him in a position of judgment. His intimate knowledge of the man in the street gives him common ground with the public. His writings and lectures are packed full with revealing information.

He has traveled about 200,000 miles in other lands as a news correspondent. For the last four years of the war he appeared everywhere speaking before the men of the armed forces. He just recently returned from Europe where he represented The American and British Digest Intelligence. His lecture, "I Saw Hell Loose on the Border" will prove interesting in the light of present day happenings.

Christian Science Churches
"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday, July 18. The Golden Text is taken from John: "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself" (5:26).

The following citations are included in the sermon:
Matthew: "Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it" (7:13, 14).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As a material, theoretical life-basis is found to be a misapprehension of existence, the spiritual and divine Principle of man dwells upon human thought, and leads it to 'where the young child was,'—even in the birth of a new-old idea, to the spiritual sense of being and of what Life includes" (p. 191).

MEAT CUT Quiz

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?
A. This is a butterfly ham slice, so-called because it has two sections or wings. It is also called a double slice of ham.
Q. Where does the cut come from and how is it identified?
A. The butterfly ham slice is cut from the butt end of a ham. A double slice (which is not cut through the center) from the meaty, cushion side of the ham is opened out flat to form a round or oval slice. It may be identified by the cut down the center.
Q. How should this cut be prepared?
A. Like other slices of ham, the butterfly slice should be broiled or pan-broiled. Place the meat on the broiler rack and then under the heat for a 1/2-inch slice, 8 to 10 minutes for a 1-inch slice. Turn and broil other side for same time. Or place in heavy frying-pan and brown each side, allowing about half as long as in broiling. Serve hot.

Fire Demonstration Held Last Friday
were served to the firemen and their guests in the firehouse. Among those present were fire chiefs from Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other Alameda County cities and towns. Others present included County Supervisor Thomas E. Caldecott, Albany's Mayor Frank Hays, Councilman Bert Hill, Fire Commissioner; Civil Service Commissioner A. B. Taveira and Jack O'Leary, secretary of the Albany Civil Service Commission. Serving as chairman of the refreshment committee was Captain Les Varni.
In addition to the call at Codornices Village, a truck was called out prior to the demonstration to extinguish a blaze in a drain at the corner of Solano and San Pablo Ave. Again while refreshments were being served, a call came in, this time for a grass fire. All in all, the local department had a very busy evening.
The visitors praised Chief Pimental and his men for a fine demonstration and enjoyable refreshments and declared this one of the best meetings yet held by the association.

You omitted mention of the Troop 12 Boy Scout float in the write-up of the Independence Day parade.

You may not have noticed but the judges awarded a $25 cash prize to the Scouts for their entry as the best for youth organizations.

(Of course, following the Green Parlor Drill Team of the Native Daughters of the Golden West you may not have been able to get a good look at it.) How about a hand for the Scouts?

The Times regrets this editorial oversight on our part. We did see the Scout float and enjoyed it very much. We herewith tender our apologies and a loud round of applause.—Ed.

Homemaking Today

By Barbara Foote
P. C. and E. Home Economist, Oakland

Fresh strawberries are here again. M-m-m! They're an open invitation to all homemakers to get out the cream pitcher or mixing bowl and produce a surprise for the dessert hounds in the family. Berries and cream, shortcake—what will you have?

Here is a recipe for strawberry pie that is easy to make and may be new to you. The pleasing combination of fresh berries and cream cheese is a perfect "topper" for a heavy meal.

STRAWBERRY PIE

1 baked 8-inch pastry shell
1 pint fresh strawberries, sliced
1/2 cup sugar
1 package strawberry gelatin
3/4 teaspoon salt
2 packages cream cheese
3/4 cup cream

Bake pastry shell. Cool. Wash berries, hull, slice and add sugar. Prepare the gelatin according to the directions on the package, using any juice from the strawberries as part of the liquid. Add the salt and cool until the gelatin begins to thicken, then add berries. Combine cream cheese with the cream and beat until like stiff whipped cream. Spread 1/2 of the cheese in the bottom of the baked pastry shell, reserving the remainder for the top of the pie. Place the gelatin-strawberry mixture over the cream cheese layer. Chill until firm. Garnish the top of the pie around the edge with the remaining whipped cream, using a pastry tube or dropping from a teaspoon. Makes one 8-inch pie.

STRAWBERRY MOUSSE

1 quart strawberries
3/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups whipping cream OR
1 tall can evaporated milk, thoroughly chilled
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Select sound well-ripened berries. Wash, remove stems, drain and mash, or press through a coarse sieve. This makes about 1 1/2 to 2 cups pulp and juice. If berries are sour, 1/4 cup more sugar will be required. Add sugar to pulp and stir occasionally until it is dissolved. Whip cream or milk until stiff. Fold in lemon juice and strawberry mixture. Pour at once into cold freezing trays. Turn the temperature control to coldest setting at least 1/2 hour before putting mousse in to freeze. When completely frozen, turn control back to normal position to "ripen." Makes 3 pints.

Marjorie Stott Elected Legion Aux. President

At a business meeting of Albany Unit 292, American Legion Auxiliary, on July 12 Mrs. Marjorie Stott was elected President for the year 1948-49.

Others elected were Jean Walston, first vice-president; Pearl Heans, second vice-president; Zella Lindh, secretary; Marian Hill, treasurer; Mable Nelson, chaplain; Bessie Scott, historian and Edwa Ludwig, sergeant-at-arms. Elected to serve on the Executive Committee were Dorothy Bradley, Josephine Foley, and Laura Roderick. The Auxiliary will hold a joint installation with Post 292, American Legion, on Sept. 17.

POET OF THE PIANO—Conductor-pianist Carmen Cavallaro will direct the orchestra on NBC's "Carmen Cavallaro Orchestra" program Tuesdays. The "poet of the piano" and his musicians will take the "Date With Judy" time spot for the summer, starting June 29.

Garren Adds Theater In Bijou to Chain

William Garren, manager of the Albany Theater, is a busy man these days. Not only does he own and operate a drive-in theater at Stateline, Lake Tahoe which parks 400 cars, but he has recently taken the beautiful Bal-Bijou Lodge Theater at Bijou, Calif.

Recently the Albany expanded into Oakland with the acquisition of the Peralta Theater at 14th and Peralta St. Garren has completely remodeled this west Oakland show house with new furnishings and projection equipment.

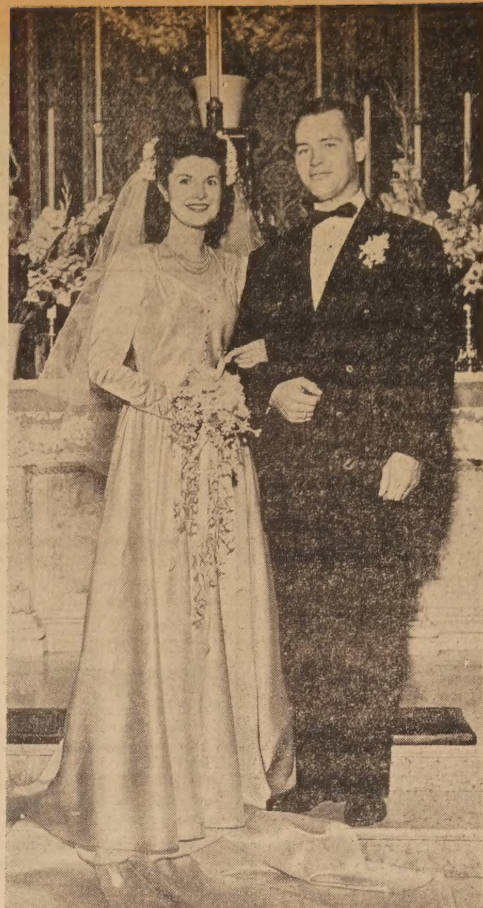

Now functioning as the Albany Theater Corporation with offices here in the Albany Theater, the organization owns and operates four theaters and has cooperative operational and booking facilities with 20 additional theaters in Northern California, including the Piedmont Theater.

'Oklahoma' to Play Oakland One Week Starting July 19

It is important that all who will attend the performances of the Theatre Guild's magic musical, "Oklahoma," at the Oakland Auditorium Theatre during the week beginning Monday, July 19, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, shall be in their seats not later than 8:20 sharp in the evenings and 2:20 for the matinees.

Special attention is called to this early rising of the curtain because three of the most popular of the Richard Rodgers-Oscar Hammerstein musical numbers are sung within the first twenty minutes. This means that late comers would miss all, or part of, "Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'," "The Surrey With the Fringe on the Top," and "Everything's Up to Date in Kansas City," because no one will be seated by the ushers while the singing is in progress. And that other big hit, the comedy song, "I Can't Say No" follows almost immediately. So it behooves all ticket holders to arrive promptly.

"Oklahoma's" visit to Oakland marks the end of its present stay in California it comes after smashing engagements of 8 weeks in San Francisco, of 6 weeks in Los Angeles and of one week each in Pasadena, Long Beach, San Diego and Sacramento, and goes from here to Seattle. When on the Pacific Coast two years ago, the play was presented only in San Francisco and Los Angeles, in each for 12 weeks, during which time completely sold-out houses were the rule in both cities. In fact "Oklahoma" holds the record for attendance and receipts for each place by a very wide margin.

Lost Dogs

Humane Officer Melvin Meyer has quite a few dogs imprisoned at the City Pound. He announced this week that residents who have lost a dog should come to the pound to see if their canine is among the "prisoners." Dogs unclaimed within two weeks will be destroyed.

Meyer is also attempting to find a buyer for a female Siamese cat.

How to make a telephone grow

1. If your telephone grew in size as the system serving it grows, it might look like this someday. Since 1940 alone, telephone have increased 75% on the Coast. And the growth continues. Today your telephone is a bigger, more valuable servant than ever. Here's how it got that way.

2. Cables you'll probably never see had to be put in. New buildings, the telephones themselves, complex switching frames... an almost unbelievable amount of equipment had to be provided before the system could grow. We must spend millions of dollars to keep it expanding and improving... to meet the needs of the growing West.

3. Who pays for new equipment? That's a million dollars a day needed to expand and improve comes from investors who put their savings into the telephone business. To continue growing and improving, we must sell our services at fair and adequate prices that provide profits for investors that are fair and adequate.

Bell Laboratories Discover New Type Electric Amplifier

An amazingly simple device capable of performing efficiently nearly all the functions of an ordinary vacuum tube has just been announced at the Bell Telephone Laboratories, the research arm of the Bell System, where it was invented.

According to R. E. Flynn, telephone company manager here, the device is known as the Transistor, and it may have far-reaching significance in electronics and electrical communication.

The device works on an entirely new physical principle discovered by the Laboratories in the course of fundamental research into the electrical properties of solids. The whole apparatus is housed in a tiny cylinder less than an inch long. It will serve as an amplifier or an oscillator—yet it bears almost no resemblance to the vacuum tube now used to do these basic jobs. It has no vacuum, no glass envelope, no grid, no plate, no cathode and therefore no warm-up delay. Tests have shown that the Transistor will amplify at least 100 times.

Demonstrations already given the Transistor emphasize some of the many uses it may have in telephone communication as well as its ready adaptability to the electronic techniques of radio, television, and public address systems. In one demonstration, a Transistor was used to amplify the electrical speech waves traveling between two telephones, a function now performed by vacuum tubes. In another, a radio broadcast was heard from a set constructed entirely without vacuum tubes but using instead several of the tiny Transistors to provide amplification.

The Transistor answers a question scientists have been pondering for many years—how to make semiconductor amplify and thus provide a simpler, more rugged, smaller device that could perform the functions of a vacuum tube.

Two hair-thin wires touching a pinhead of a solid semi-conductive material soldered to a metal base, are the principal parts of the Transistor. These are enclosed in a simple metal cylinder not much larger than a shoe-lace tip. More than a hundred of them can easily be held in the palm of the hand. The essential simplicity of the Transistor indicates the possibility of widespread use, with resultant mass production economies. When fully developed, the Transistor is also expected to find new applications in electronics where vacuum tubes have not proven suitable.

When it's trout planting time in the mountains

...P.G. and E. helps stock the streams

Packing in to remote lakes and streams high in the mountains go sure-footed pack horses with loads of trout... thousands of fingerlings "packed" in each specially cooled can. They're on the last leg of the journey from the Burney Fish Hatchery... one of many fish conservation facilities built in California by P. G. and E.

for the record

On P. G. and E.'s system more than 100 lakes and reservoirs aid fish conservation.

Since the removal of war time controls, P. G. and E. has spent $225,000,000 expanding its far-flung system.

The huge building program, now in its third year, is going full speed ahead.

"Planting" the baby fish helps keep California streams well-stocked. Many of these brooks used to be dry during the summer. Now the release of stored water from P. G. and E. reservoirs keeps most of them flowing the year 'round.

Man's ingenuity improves on Mother Nature at the Burney Hatchery. Under natural spawning conditions, only 5% of the eggs laid in streams survive. Here 90% are hatched and cared for until they reach stream size, and are ready for planting.

After years of fishing, I thought I'd seen just about everything an outboard motor could do, but I'm writing to tell you that I've never seen anything like the performance of your Martin "60." I've tried my Martin in all kinds of conditions and weather, and I've never had smoother, more dependable performance from any motor. It's never once flooded or stalled—and as for pickup—well, I can crawl along at mile-an-hour trolling speed and then accelerate without a sputter. As I say, I've tried them all—but from now on it's nothing but a Martin for me. I just thought you might like to know how one sportsman feels about your motor.

What You Are Seeking

In the advertising section of the average daily newspaper we find many expressions of need, such as home or help or employment wanted; and often a personal column inviting loneliness or the need of healing broken family relationships. This is all typical of a society in which one may hear another say, "If only I had a home of my own, I should be so happy;" or "If I had someone where else to work, things would be different." Many times the attainment of the desired end leaves something still lacking.

The truth is that most people are really seeking God. "But I am not seeking God," one may say, "I have never been attracted to Him. As a matter of fact, it makes me rather uncomfortable to speak of Him. Let me be practical and keep my feet on the ground. A mighty Judge sitting on a heavenly throne has no appeal for me."

Such a concept of God has no appeal to any intelligent person. . . . To understand Him one must learn His true nature. To the question, "What is God?" Mary Baker Eddy has replied in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 465), "God is incorporeal, divine, supreme, infinite Mind, Spirit, Soul, Principle, Life, Truth, Love."

"To speak of God as Principle seems rather cold," you may say. But is it really cold? A dictionary defines the word "principle" in part as follows: "Justice, equity, integrity; source, origin, cause." Do not these words apply intelligently to the Supreme Being?

To speak of God as Love is in accordance with the Scriptures. "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16). How practical is this name for God!

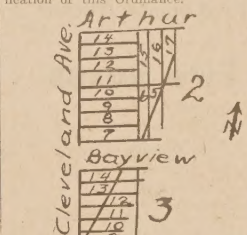

The writer remembers a road through lonely country which suddenly twisted up a steep hill and curved around a rock. On the rock was painted in large letters, "Prepare to meet thy God" (Amos 4:12). . . . To meet God is not something to be feared; it is not something which happens only after death. God is Life, and we meet Him in every activity every day. We are constantly with Him. God, being Life, is a law of annihilation to death. Did not Jesus Lazarus, restored the widow's son, and, finally stepped from the sepulcher triumphant in the glory of unconquerable Life?

Our activities are governed by intelligence when we remember that God is our Mind. We are not subject to material limitations when we prove that in reality we are the children of Spirit. Fleshly failings and the ugliness of materiality find no foothold in our thought when we know that our God is Soul. Truth is another name for God. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free," our Master promised (John 8:32). You shall indeed know God and God shall make you free! Our Father is so near and so real that when we seek Him with understanding He is all we need. When we know Him we have All.—The Christian Science Monitor.

"I'm going to France," she smiled. "We're going to see the pretty place at Lourdes."

"We just hope she will be able to get along without casts," Dr. McMahon said. "We'll settle for that."

Her brother, Robert Jr., has been left with his grandmother in Illinois. The McMahons reside at 740 Gateview Ave. They are members of St. Jerome parish in El Cerrito.
